A NOTE FROM FATHER FRANCIS

Totus Tuus Week,

This weekend begins our Totus Tuus youth program that brings to our parish the four men and women who are so enthusiastic in sharing their faith with our young ones and youth from our two parishes and also from Longville. We welcome them to our parish and we hope our young people will get enriched. As we have mentioned before, this a wonderful program, and I want to encourage any parent who hasn't registered their kids to feel free to do so.

As you will see in the program daily schedule, in order to accommodate our kids into the daily mass schedule, I have decide to change morning mass from 8:00 A.M. to 11:15 A.M on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday while Tuesday it remains the same (8:00 A.M) here at St. Agnes and Friday there will still be mass at Sacred Heart as usual. There will be opportunity for confessions and adoration through-out the week for the kids, their parents, and anyone interested to celebrate with them. For any questions or clarification please feel to contact the office for more details.

Fr. Francis

ATTENTION SACRED HEART PARISHIONERS!—This Saturday, July 24th after the 4:00 p.m. Mass and Sunday, July 25th after the 8:30 a.m. Mass there will be 30 minute training sessions for Lectors, Ushers, and Eucharistic Ministers.
